

The Sewergrooves - Rock 'n' Roll Receiver

Look out now!

The Sewergrooves are a rock 'n' roll band from Stockholm, Sweden who never fail to deliver 110% both live and on record. Those who have not seen Kurt, Andreas, Packe and Fredrik deliver the goods live cannot truly consider themselves as having been exposed to the soulful rockin' that is The Sewergrooves.

In case you haven't caught on after 5 full length records and a million 7"s the Sewergrooves are children of the 70s. This new record pays homage to that decade in ways that will have you scratching your heads until the next record comes out. They remember everything. And they keep it coming.

This time I know that Kurt's lyrics have reached a maturity unseen in previous efforts. He wrote these songs for you. But they're about everybody. And anybody.

They're going to make you a believer - a Rock 'n' Roll Receiver!
